Springs Yoga is proud to offer its 6th teacher training program from Jan. 26th – Oct. 14th, 2018. This teacher training is taught by highly renowned senior instructors RuthAnn Martin Aukamp, David Aukamp, owners of Springs Yoga and Josi Adler, senior teacher. The training is designed for serious students interested in becoming teachers; current teachers wishing to refine their craft; or students wanting to expand their practice and understanding of all aspects of the practice of yoga. Many past participants had no intention to become teachers rather used the training as a personal transformational experience. Students will experience 200+ hours of study into the core teachings of Hatha Yoga including; asana, alignment, pranayama (breath), meditation, yoga philosophy, theory, history, anatomy and biomechanics, and the art of teaching (class composition and sequencing, use of voice, observation and hands-on adjustments, themes and demonstrations).

Frequently Asked Questions:

Are books and materials included in the price of the training?

Students who are accepted into the training will receive a book list for the training. These are not covered in the cost of the training. All other printed materials handed out during the training are included.

When will the one yoga class per week begin?

As part of your tuition, you are eligible for one yoga class per week at Springs Yoga. It will begin on the program start date after we have officially accepted you into the program and your payment has been paid in full. If you have a current series with us, it will be used only if you attend more than one class per week after the start of the program.

When will I find out if I have been accepted into the program?

After you submit your completed Teacher Training Application, you will be contacted via email or phone within 2 weeks. Your payment will be processed upon acceptance. If you are not accepted into the program, we will guide you on a path that will help you prepare for a future teacher training.

How proficient in yoga do I have to be to participate in the program?

The Springs Yoga Teacher Training program includes effortful asana practice. We strongly recommend that applicants have one year of consistent asana practice. If you are new to yoga, this would not necessarily disqualify you from being accepted into the program. However, if you have a regular yoga practice and are looking for a deeper understanding of the practice and history of yoga, its postures, alignment and the ability to create and convey a comprehensive, safe sequence to others – this is the program for you.

What if I miss a class?

To obtain a certificate of completion you must attend 100% of the classes to comply with Yoga Alliance requirements. However, we understand that you may not be able to foresee every conflict, so we have devised the following procedures if you must miss a class:

Absentee Policy:

To get the most out of your Teacher Training Program, it is critically important that you attend 100% of the training.

If you miss 1-3 days: You may still complete the program with your class provided that you schedule a private session (or group session) with a Designated Trainer at some point during the program. A two-hour private session equates to one full day (6 hours) of training. The cost of a private session is $100 per hour. Please contact Springs Yoga to schedule the make-up session. The maximum number of private make-up sessions is two.

If you miss 4 or more days you will not be able to complete the program with your class, and you will need to make up the classes in a subsequent training. You may choose to make up the first two days you miss with a private session during your training, but the additional days you will need to take in a subsequent training. The fee is $100 per hour.

If you miss 5+ days you will need to retake the program at a discounted price, subject to space availability.

Do you offer scholarships or work-exchange programs?

Springs Yoga offers a limited number of partial scholarships each training to prospective students with exceptional circumstances. To apply for a scholarship, please e-mail david@springsyoga.com. Space is limited & not guaranteed to be available.

How much time should I expect to spend on homework?

Between 10-12 hours per month on written assignments and class observations. The homework is designed to support the material covered in class and help you integrate what is presented into your own practice and teaching. If you are not planning on teaching after this course, you may choose not to complete all of the homework assignments and take the course for non-credit. However, if you wish to receive your Certificate of Completion for the course, you must attend all the sessions and complete all the homework assignments.

What is Yoga Alliance?

Yoga Alliance is an organization that was started in 1999 as a way to create nationally recognized standards for yoga teachers and yoga teacher trainings. More and more yoga studios and fitness clubs across the country are requiring their teachers to be registered with Yoga Alliance, either at the 200 or 500 hour level. Yoga Alliance registration, however, is not a legal requirement for teaching yoga. Currently, there are no legal certification requirements to be a yoga teacher.

Will I be qualified to teach yoga once I complete the 200-Hour Teacher Training Program?

Yes! With the successful completion of all the requirements of the program, including contact hours, homework and final exam, you will receive your Certificate of Completion evidencing your training at the 200-hour level. You may also register with the Yoga Alliance (www.yogaalliance.org) at the RYT-200 level. Graduates of the 200-hour program usually begin teaching in small studios, gyms, with private clientele (friends and family), etc. Many new teachers decide to continue their Teacher Training education as a way to further solidify their skills, knowledge and style as a yoga instructor. Although it is a highly recommended path, you do not need to be registered with Yoga Alliance in order to teach yoga.

Please submit above application to Springs Yoga.
